High School

PRESENT

OUR TOWN

pictorially portrayed

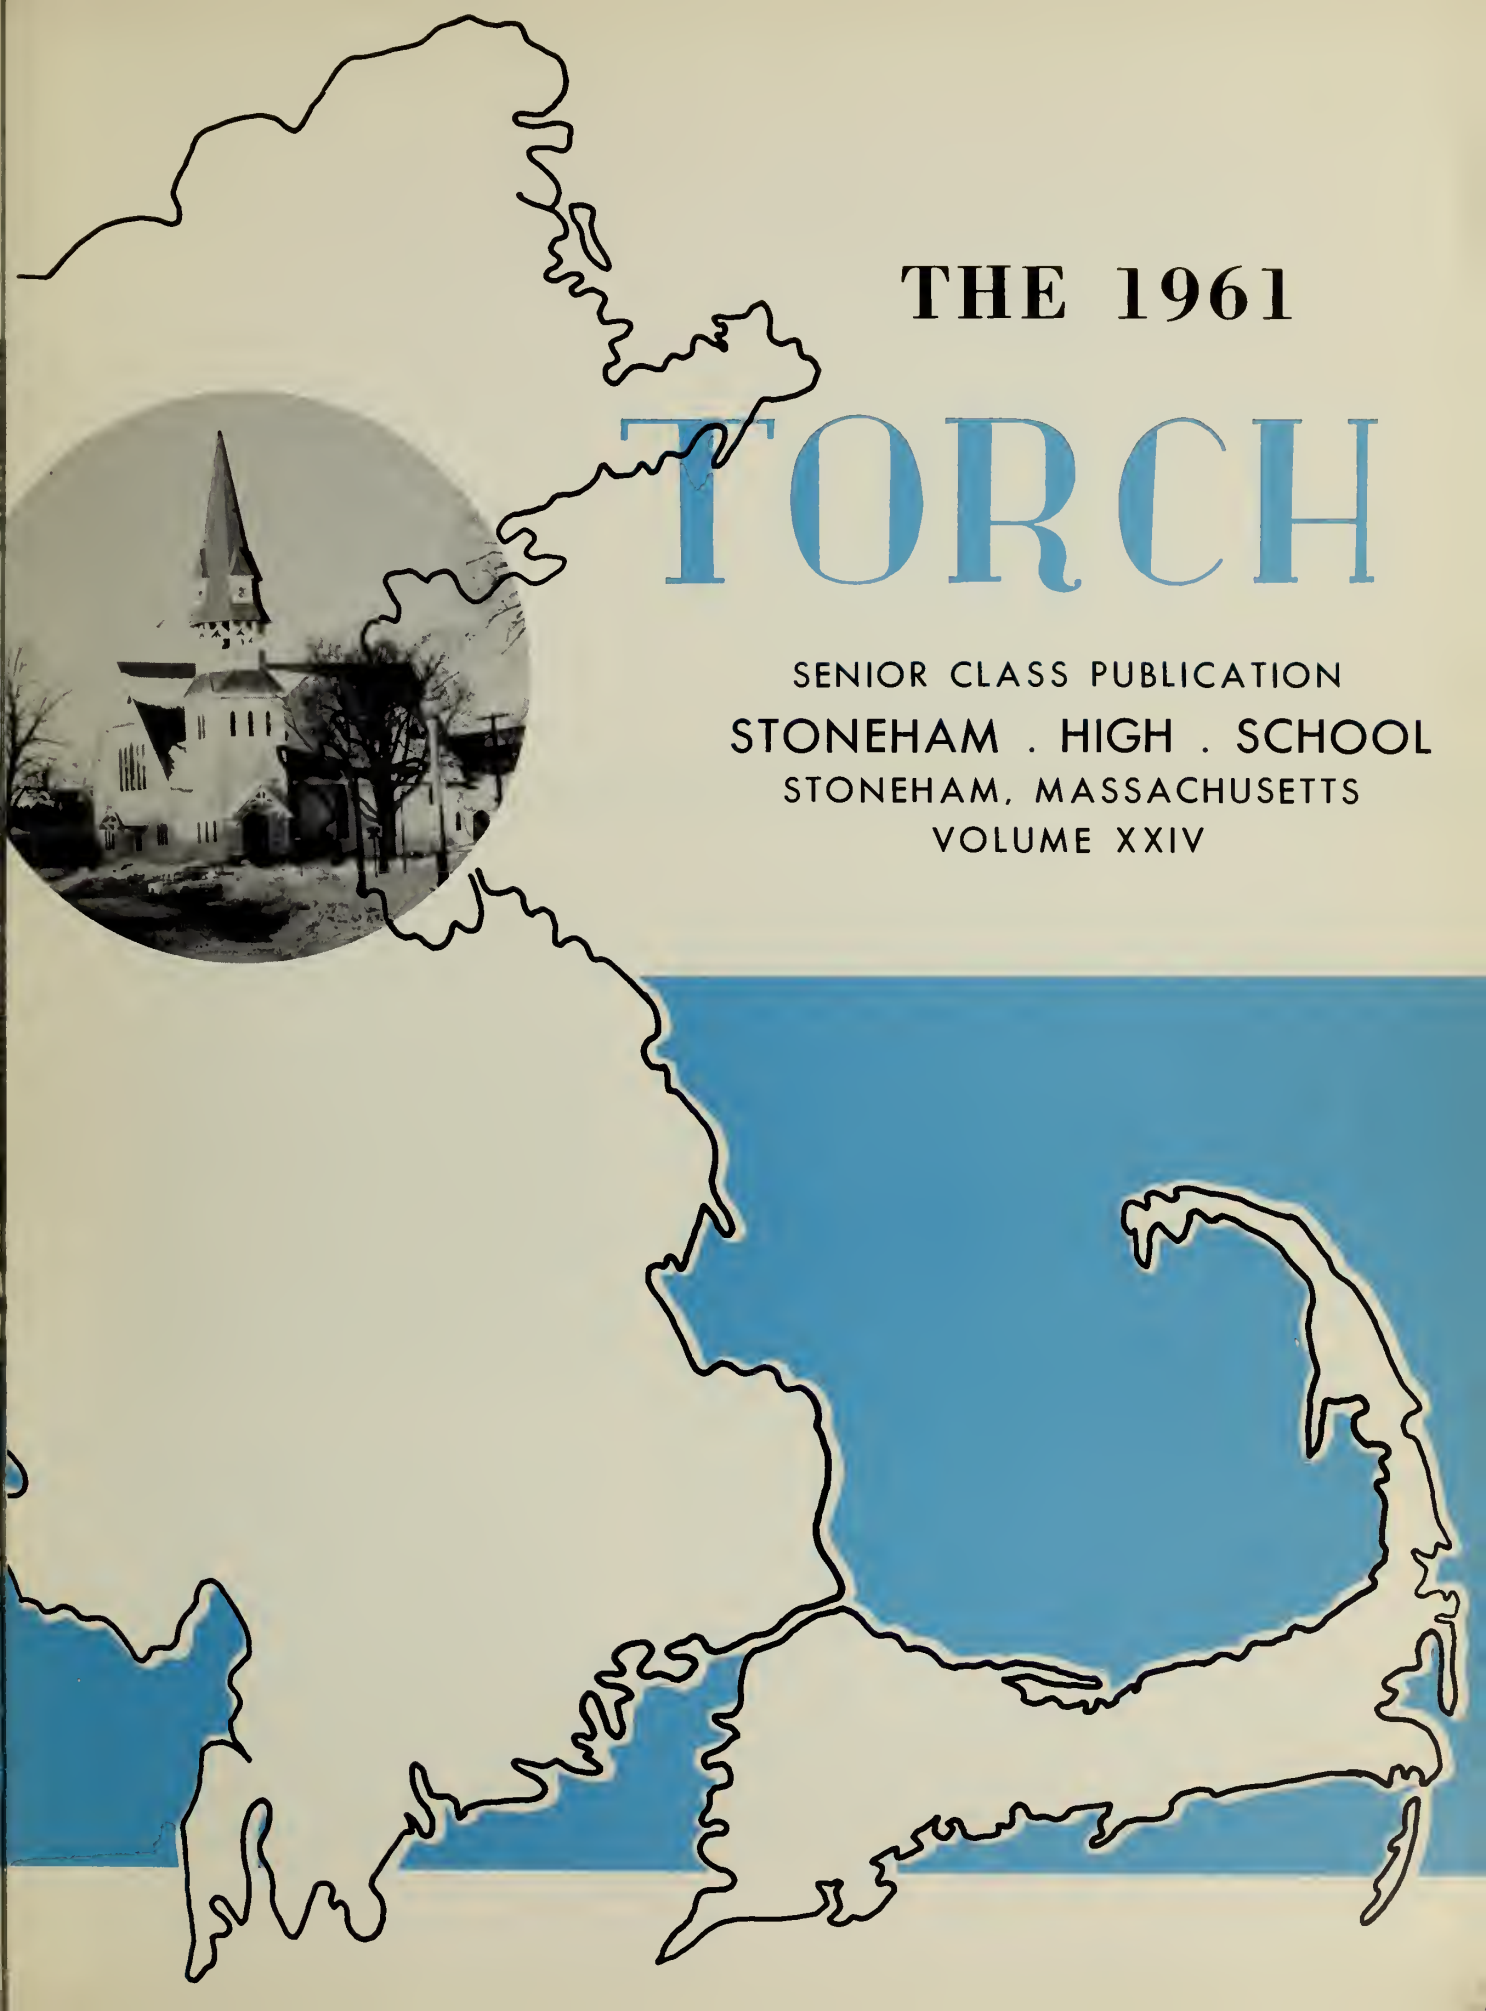

Located just twelve miles north of Boston, Stoneham, incorporated as a town in 1725, is an outstanding community in a thriving and historical area of the country. While the town is increasing in population, it still retains its fine small town characteristics. The town form of government enables every citizen to initiate legislation, speak, and vote. Its excellent library, community concerts, religious and social activities, and friendly atmosphere make this residential area a most desirable place in which to live. We at Stoneham High School are especially proud to be a part of this cultural community.

TORCH

SENIOR CLASS PUBLICATION
STONEHAM . HIGH . SCHOOL
STONEHAM, MASSACHUSETTS
VOLUME XXIV

Dedicated to Mr. William Nadeau

The mark of a real leader is his ability to command attention, and during our three years at Stoneham High School, Mr. William Nadeau has certainly shown this ability. Always present to help or suggest, always willing to go out of his way to give assistance to a student who needed it, he has surely given us an example by which to live.

We have seen his unfailing patriotism, his devotion to our interests, his inspiring contribution to our community. For his tireless work on our behalf, in gratitude we dedicate the 1961 Torch to Mr. William Nadeau.

....A Happy Combination

Our Town

We, the class of 1961, have finally completed our years at Stoneham High School. During our time here, we have felt a special partnership with the town of Stoneham. We have done all we could to bring honor to our town, and in return, our town has supported our activities, our scholarships, our programs, and our ambitions. Our town has been the helping hand waiting to supply our necessities when we have had to call for aid.

We shall always feel our school days were irrevocably linked to our community life, and thus our theme for the 1961 Torch is Our Town, Stoneham, Massachusetts.

CURRICULUM

ADMINISTRATION

Our town takes an interest in its school administration because its administrators bring honor to the town by high scholastic ratings coupled with new programs to broaden our horizons through reading and current events. Our administrative heads, Dr. Michael Scarpitto, Ph.D., Principal William Nadeau, and Vice Principal Wendell Horton, help us immeasurably in preparing for the future.

Dr. Michael Scarpitto and Mr. Wendell Horton discuss administrative matters.

Directing School Affairs

W

GUIDANCE

Guidance counselors Mr. Martin Martinian and Mr. Wilbur Halliday discuss a student's record.

Mrs. Alice Walsh
Secretary

Miss Teresa Connors
Secretary

Mrs. Beulah Forbes
School Nurse

ENGLISH

The primary purpose of the English program is to teach students to read, to write, to speak, and to think—all more effectively. Mrs. Sadie Marshall, head of the department, Mr. Bernard Smith, Mr. Richard Stott, Mrs. Margaret Bonny, and Miss Nancy Olson strive to achieve these objectives in their classrooms.

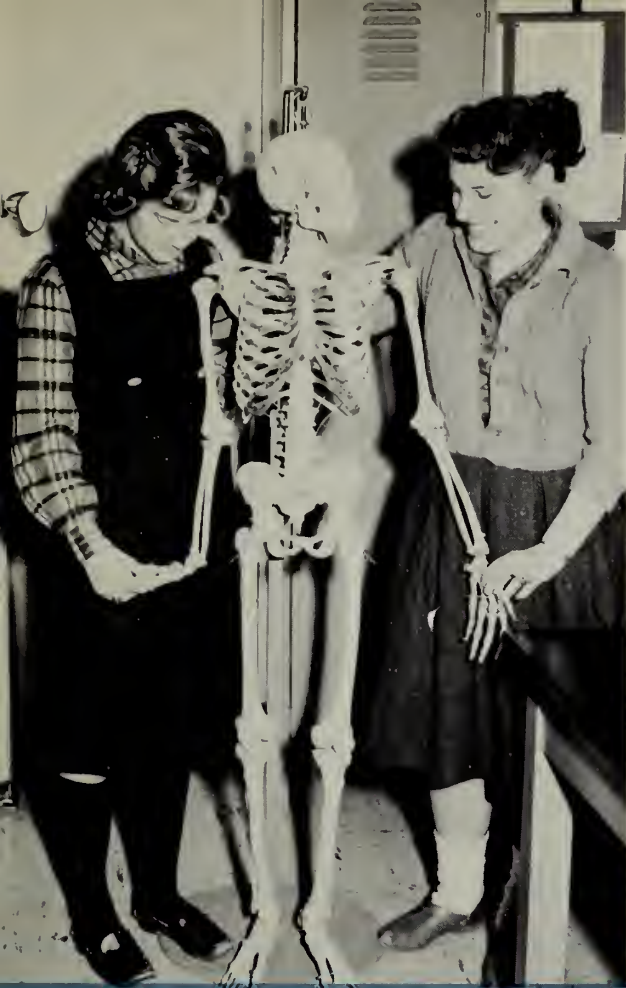

Reading For Pleasure is Encouraged

Mrs. Marshall lectures on William Shakespeare and his plays.

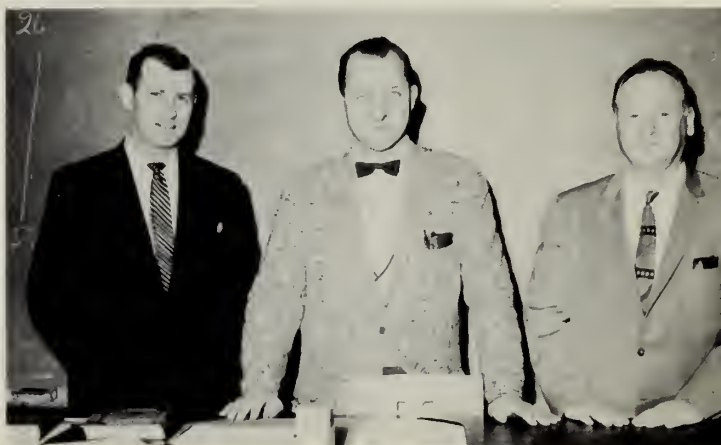

Terry Hayes and Miss Olson discuss the navel Jane Eyre.

Leslie Blanchard and Ruth Hensley seem to enjoy meeting "Sam."

The sciences, which are so important in the world in which we live, are taught by Mr. Miller, head of the department, Mr. Collins, and Mr. Hodgkins. Under their capable direction we learn to understand better how nature and science combine to create the world we know today.

Mr. Joseph Collins, Mr. William Miller, head of the department, Mr. Erland Hadgkins.

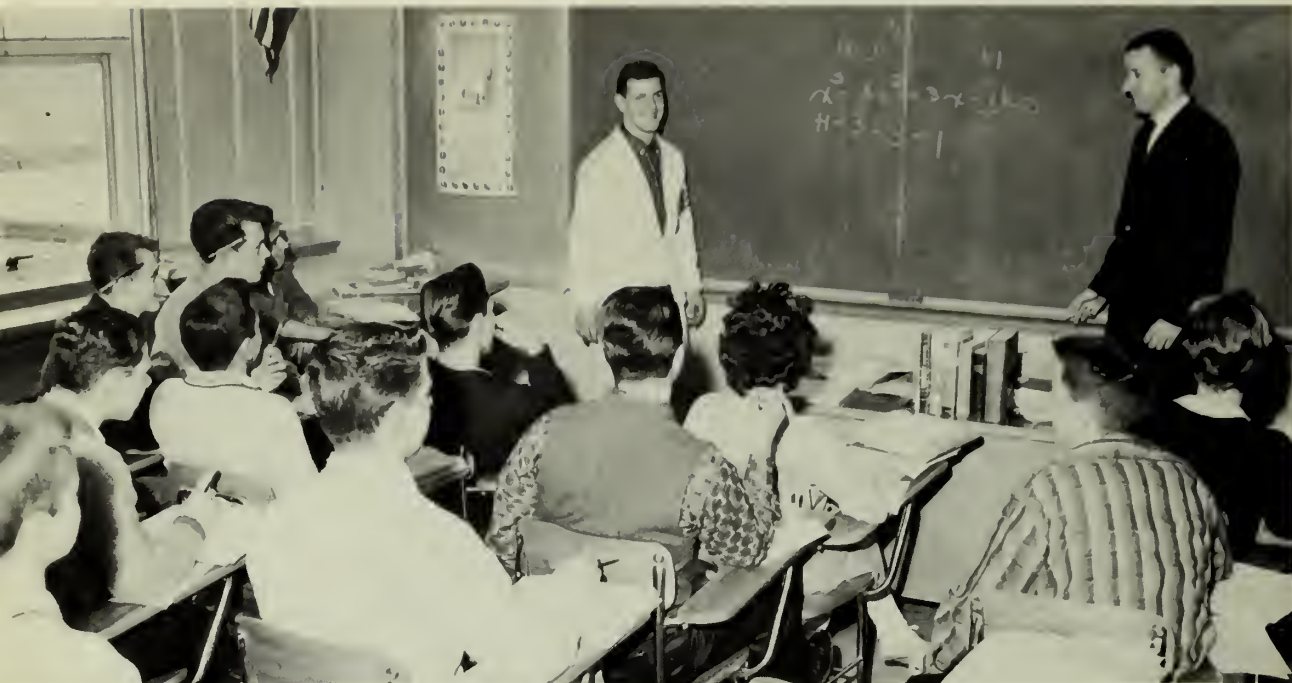

Importance of Science is Emphasized

Conducting a chemistry experiment are Robert McBay, Dauglas DeViva, and Charles Govatsas.

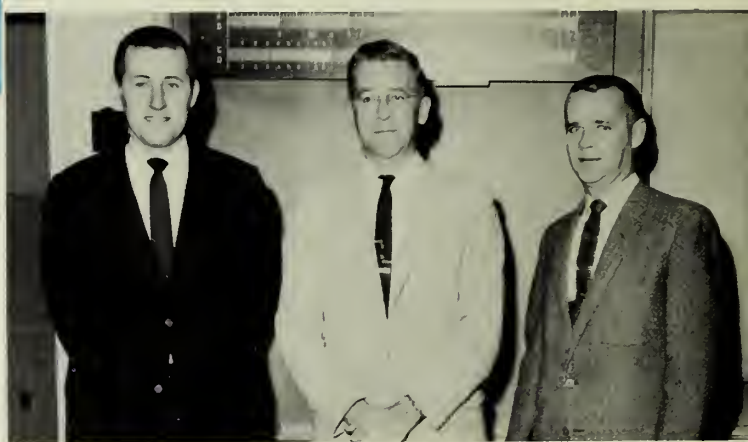

William Greaves and Edwin Barney identify slides under a microscope.

With the assistance of Mr. Matthews, Francis Pignone solves on algebra problem.

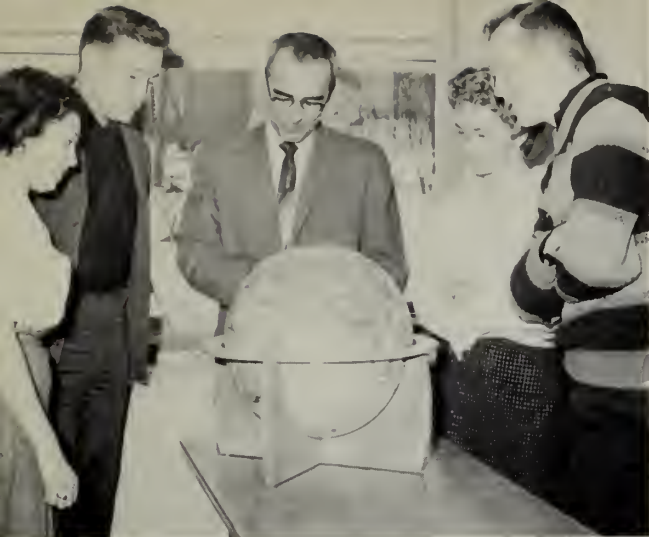

Accelerated Programs Attract Mathematics Experts

Mr. Jordan, head of the department, Mr. Matthews, and Mr. Hayes lead us through the world of mathematics. In the first two years we are taught the principles of geometry and algebra. When we become seniors, we have our choice of review math., advanced math., trigonometry, and solid geometry.

Mr. John Matthews, Mr. Chester Jordan, head of the department, Mr. Francis Hoyes.

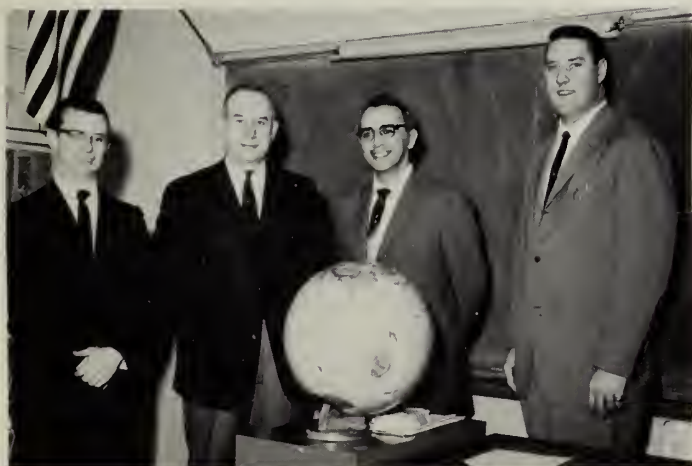

Dorothy Tibbetts and Susan Whitehouse explain a problem in trigonometry class.

Mr. Kiamie locates strategic areas in the world for Emily Barnholtz, Francis Federowski, Morjorie Smith, and David Moore.

Mr. Rowell tells us about the dark continent, Africa.

Elections Supplement History and Social Science Program

Helping us prepare for roles as good citizens by teaching us about world and U. S. History are Mr. Roger Lamson, head of the department, Mr. Fred Kiamie, Mr. John Feltch, and Mr. Ralph Rowell. Movies, class discussions, and special reports keep our social studies courses interesting, informative, and enjoyable.

Rodney Gould and Susan Wolton look on as Mr. Lomson points out an interesting article in Time Magazine.

Preparing For Business Careers

Working in the mimeographing room is Frances DeAngelis.

Our business department, with its many fine teachers, has succeeded in preparing students for many varied positions in the business world. Some of the more important subjects studied are shorthand, typing, book-keeping, and business law. The addition of modern machines has kept the department in step with present day business methods.

Marilyn Wilson and Connie Waad learn the business procedure in telephoning.

Mr. Rolland Tapley directs the school orchestra.

Students Provide Music For Community

Mr. Alfred Tadara, Mrs. Gilda Wipperman, supervisor of music, Mr. Rolland Tapley.

Stoneham High School offers an unparalleled musical choice. Under the direction of Mrs. Gilda Wipperman, Mr. Alfred Todaro, and Mr. Rolland Tapley, our music abilities develop as we sing in the glee club and play in the band and orchestra. An understanding of music is cultivated in the music appreciation classes.

Claire Janes plays the organ at school assemblies.

Language Lab is an Innovation

Under the patient and skillful instruction of Miss Lydia Risi and Mrs. Gertrude Cariello, we have become well acquainted with the languages and customs of foreign countries. A firm foundation in French and Latin has been gained by all of us who have had the privilege of attending their classes.

Mrs. Gertrude Coriello and Miss Lydio Risi.

Making use of the language laboratory are Paula Cox, Melanie Rose, Ellen McKnight, Susan Whitehouse, Hozel Wolloce, Joyce Montague, and Beverly Balestrier.

Miss Risi looks on as Mary Doron reads in French class.

Miss Risi's senior students seem to be enjoying o lesson in French IV.

Mr. Fowcett observes the skill of Donald Nicholson, Robert Stone, James Hoslom, George Riccordelli, and Joseph DeAngelis as they perform on the ropes.

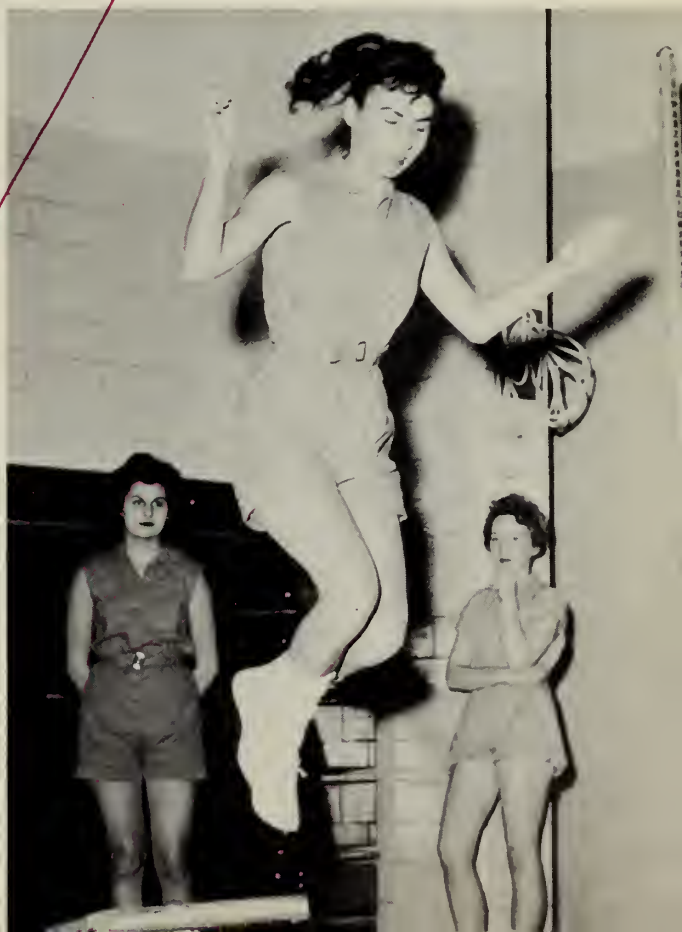

Athletics Are An Important Part of Our School

Mr. John Fowcett, Mrs. Dorothy Christie, Mr. Karl Elerin, supervisor of physical education.

Physical training classes are mandatory for both boys and girls. The curriculum includes body tone up, exercises, posture training, volleyball, basketball, softball or baseball techniques, and girls' field hockey. Buck, ropes, horse and springboard methods, and the difficult boys' obstacle course are winter favorites.

Patricia Johnson practices springboard jumping as Janet Fillipone and Gail Wilson look on.

Artists Serve School With Creative Talents

Mrs. Baker gives special help to artists Dareen Healy, Bettina Kemp, and Robert Brannen.

Library Facilities Aid Educational Research

Our library is an excellent facility for study or reference work. Guided by our librarian, Mrs. Pearl Winter, or by one of the student library aides, here we may find books on all subjects, career pamphlets, magazines, newspapers, and college catalogues.

Mrs. Eleanor Baker
Supervisor of Art

Mrs. Pearl Winter
School Librarian

Studying in the library are William Flahive, Francis Muise, Clive Gummow, and Robert Mucci.

Mr. Wolter Herrick and
Mr. Renoto Poolini.

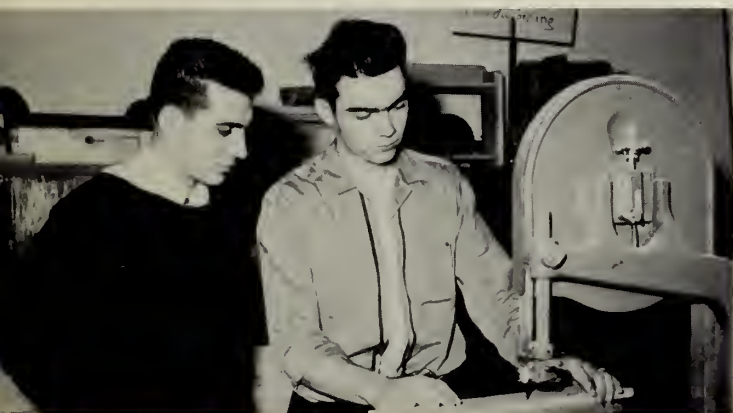

Miss Inez Bernor

In classes of sheet metal, wood shop, and machine shop, the boys work on various projects after basic instruction on machines and hand tools. Work periods, augmented by tests, lectures, and film strips, help give students a well - rounded background in manual skills.

Students in home economics class have an opportunity to master the art of homemaking under the direction of Miss Inez Bernor. This learning is not restricted to girls alone. During the past year our boys organized their own class, "The Baker's Dozen."

Vocational Students Apply Practical Skills

Working at the band saw are William Mello and Francis Ritterhous.

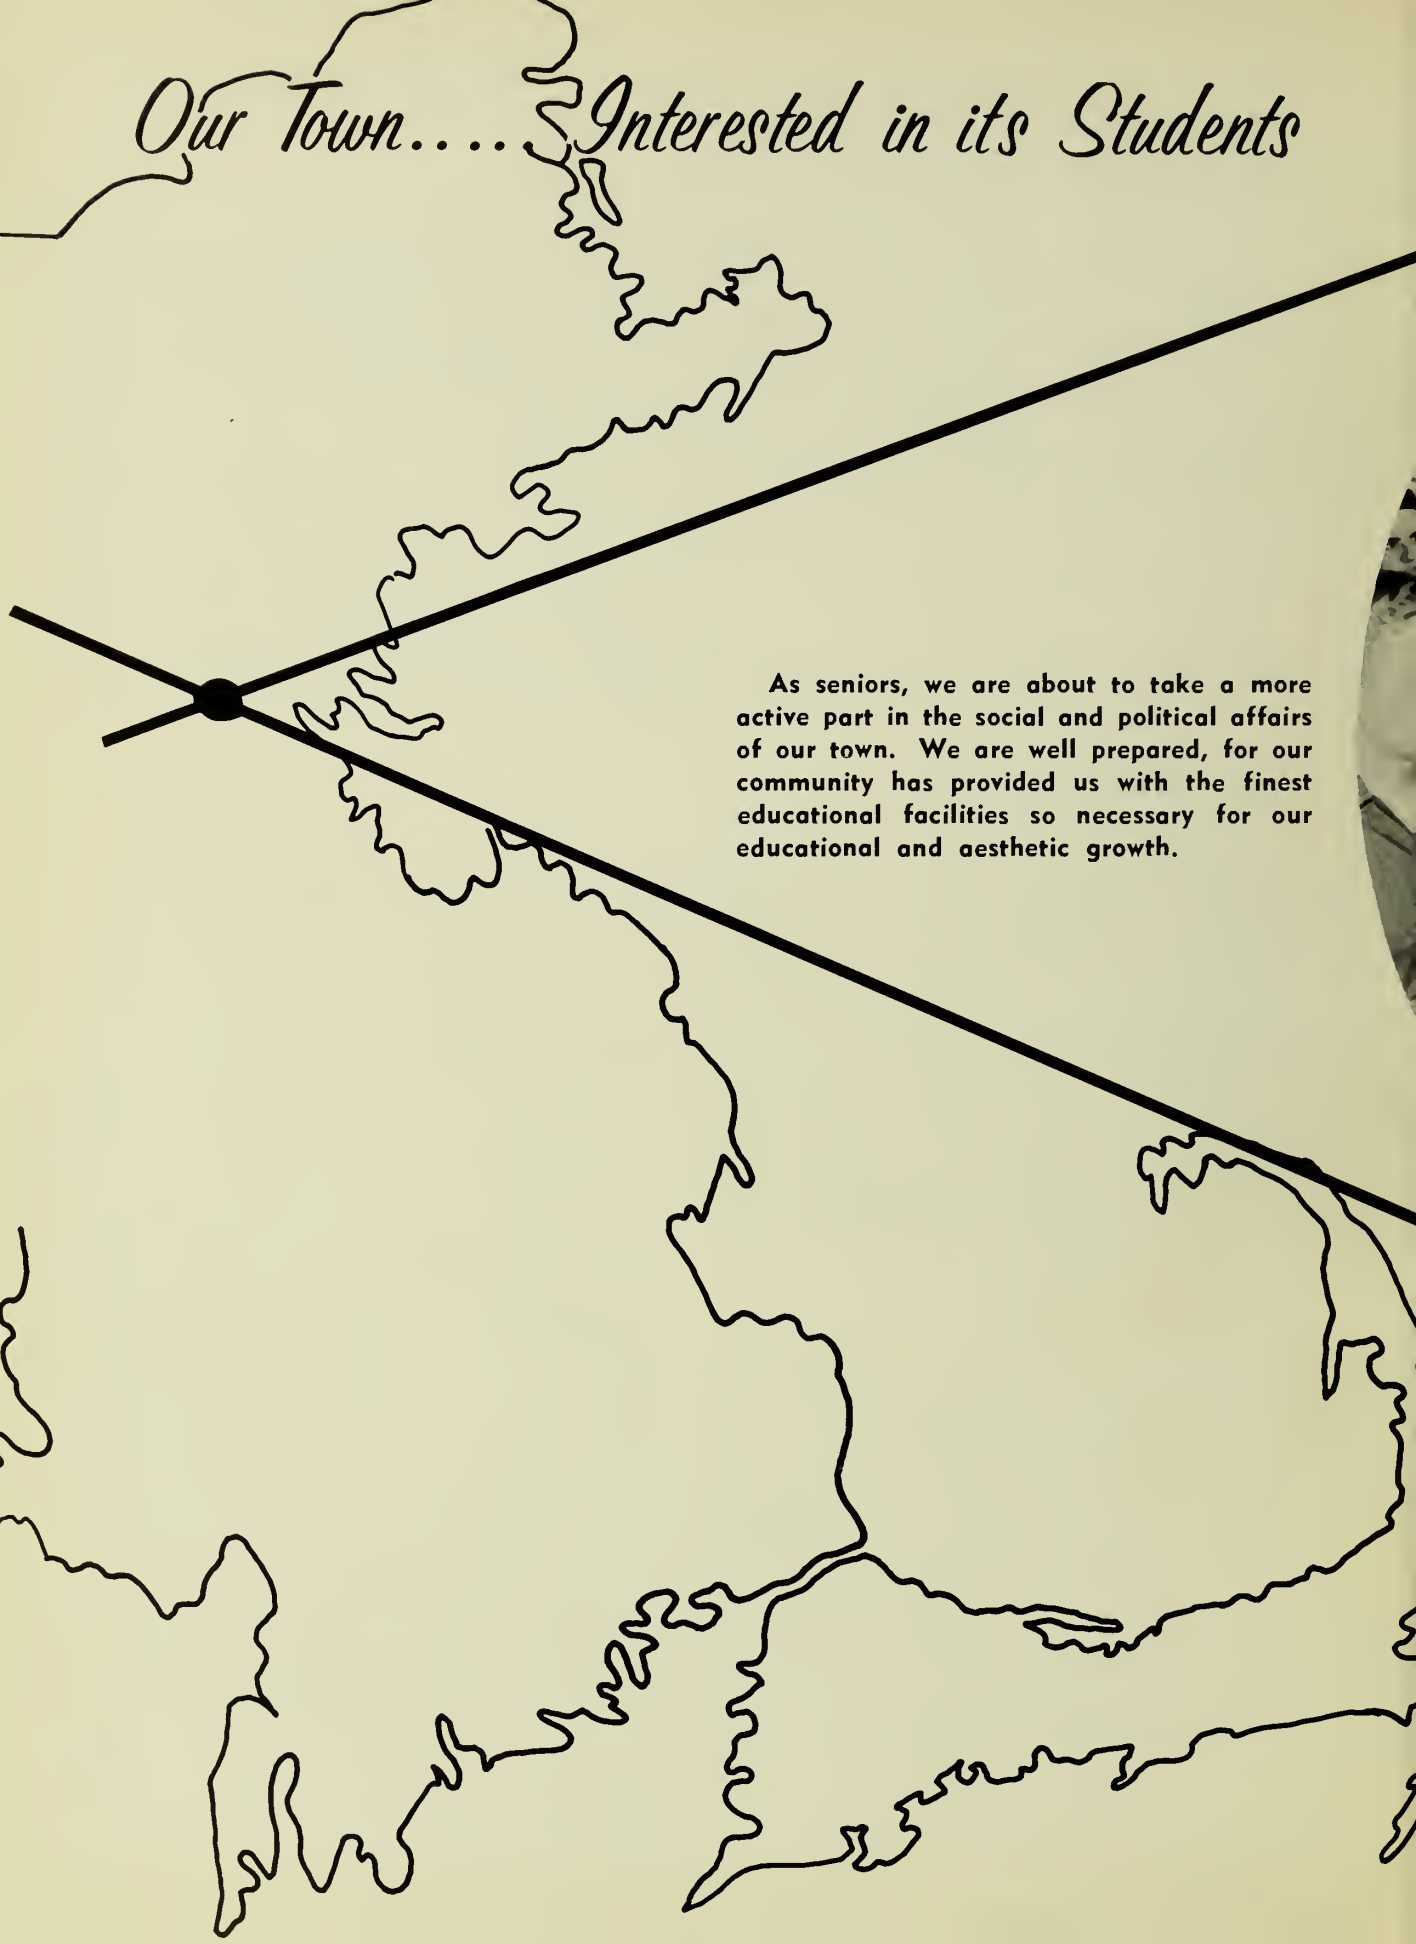

Using various references, this group of girls learns home management procedures.

William Meuse and Norman Winsom work on a project in metal shop.

Our Town..... Interested in its Students

As seniors, we are about to take a more active part in the social and political affairs of our town. We are well prepared, for our community has provided us with the finest educational facilities so necessary for our educational and aesthetic growth.

Our Town..... interested in our....

Without the support of the entire community, an athletic program cannot be successful. We are fortunate in Stoneham to have such groups as the Rotary Club and the Boosters Club which have sparked our athletic rejuvenation. Improved teams are already evident as a result of this enthusiasm.

ATHLETICS

Football Fortunes Appear Brighter

During the past seven years, Stoneham's football teams have not been very successful. However, a period of rejuvenation, guided by inspiring coaches, has evolved. A winning spirit and desire to succeed have been instilled in the entire student body.

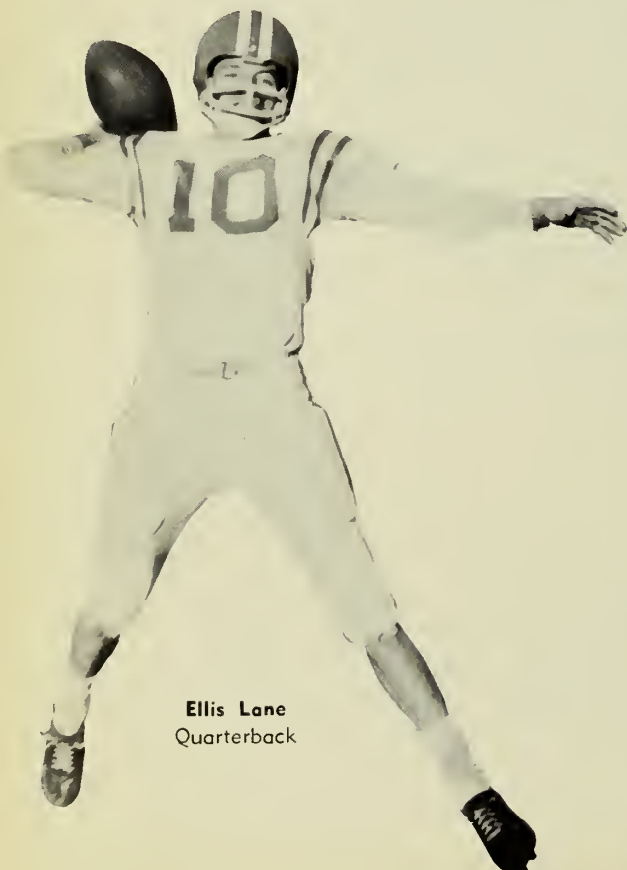

Athletes like Ellis Lane, Captain Francis Pignone, David Moore, and Francis Muise personified this new spirit during the 1960 season.

VIVACIOUS CHEERLEADERS SPUR ON OUR TEAMS

This year our twelve peppy cheerleaders helped cheer our athletic teams on to victory. The enthusiasm of the crowd was kept alive by this school-spirited group at every game throughout the year. Because of the inspiration provided by the cheerleaders, they will be remembered as an integral part of our sports events.

MAJORETTES' ROUTINES RATE APPLAUSE

Captain Ellen McKnight

An attractive feature at our football games this past autumn was our majorette squad. After many hours of practice during the summer and after school, the majorettes perfected many intricate routines. The students and the townspeople share a deep appreciation for their hard work which resulted in excellent performances.

Hopes were high as the basketball team opened the season with four straight wins. However, lack of height handicapped the boys in later games, and the club finished the season with a record of eight wins and nine losses. Despite this, the boys provided many thrills for their followers as they defeated Reading, Winchester, and Belmont.

Standouts on this year's club were Captain Billy Flahive and "Sonny" Lane. Both finished among the top ten scorers in the Middlesex League.

Dave Maare scores against Lexington.

Paul Ratandi leaps high for a rebound.

Melrose Win Highlight of Season

After a slow start, the hackey team, under new caach Paul Carey, started to move during the second half of the season. Melrase, Watertawn, Belmont, Reading, and Winchester were among the clubs defeated by the hustling Spartan sextet.

Billy Seabury and Dave Egan were respan- sible in great measure for this reversal af form. Seabury faund the scaring torch and finished second in the league in scoring. Egan praved almast impregnable in the nets behind stalwart defensemen, Bab Mucci and "Cubby" Gummaw.

Robert Williams and Clive Gummow.

Robert Williams, William
Seabury, and Paul Donovan made up the first line.

Good Defense Wins Close Ones.

Alertness, stolen bases, and good defensive baseball highlighted the Spartan baseball season this year. Captain "Sonny" Lane and the "Bills", Seabury, Flahive, and Brassil, were only a few who proved that good, solid base hits are just as effective as homeruns.

The undying spirit which has prevailed throughout our entire athletic year was never missing as our boys diligently played every game down to the final strike.

"Sonny" Lane slides safely into third base.

Billy Seabury is looking for a base hit.

Harriers Vastly Improved

The statement, "Cross country is an excellent conditioner for other athletic endeavors", was clearly exemplified by the fact that thirty boys represented the Spartans at all seven dual meets. The necessity of top physical condition drove Bill Flahive, Noel Marquis and Donald Waterman onto plateaus unachieved before.

Golfers Continue Fine Record

Seated, left to right: S. Cheyne, G. Hurley, Caach Kiamie, P. Danavan, W. Carsley. Standing: R. Salvage, N. Marquis, J. Anderson, L. O'Neill, R. Brannen, R. McBay, R. Gauld, R. Anderson, C. Hayt.

After winning the Middlesex League golf title with an undefeated season last year, the Spartan golf squad was highly optimistic about its success this year. Captain George Hurley, Scott Cheyne, and Larry O'Neill, the stalwarts of the squad, were the main reasons for success throughout the season.

Mr. Kiamie, golf coach, and George Hurley, captain.

Eager teammates await the tap won by Sue Whitehouse.

Seniors Dominate Basketball Tournament

The girls' interclass basketball tournament is an annual event. This year a larger group was chosen for competition in a number of contests known as the "Round Robin Tourney." A final team was chosen for the annual night tournament and the exciting and fascinating routines.

This year the field hockey team, under co-captains Annmarie Davidson and Melanie Rose, enjoyed a successful season, winning three games, tying one, and losing two. Because of our skilled goalie, Maria Secondini, the goals scored against the team were few.

The main objective of the coach, Mrs. Christie, was achieved. The team showed fair play and good sportsmanship throughout the season.

Melanie Rose, co-coptoin, Mrs. Dorothy Christie, coach, Annmorie Dovidson, co-captoin.

Our Town . . . Interested in Our

Whenever the community has an opportunity to support our activities, the townspeople never fail to respond. Parents, friends of the students, and alumni attend such activities as Homecoming Day, the Senior Play, the Carnival Ball, and the Spring Concert. Their interest helps to make these activities a success.

1961 Torch Staff Develops Our

Selecting pictures are: F. DeAngelis, Mr. Smith, adviser, D. DeViva, S. Wyman, P. Whateley, and R. Williams.

During this senior year there has been a group of busy beavers bustling through the winter months. These seniors are the members of the yearbook staff, the writers, the artists, the typists, and all the others without whose work this book would never have been created. With lots of work and lots of patience on the part of Mr. Smith, our adviser, we take great pleasure in presenting The Torch of 1961, a book which we hope will recall all the happy days at S.H.S.

Musical Groups Continue To Surprise

The All State Musical group includes J. Rauillard, K. Patton, and M. Smith.

Music plays an important part in school enjoyment. Football fans are pleased with our band. The glee club, boys' and girls' choirs, dance band, and orchestra show their talent in such events as the Carnival Ball, Spring Concert, Northeastern Music Festival, and holiday assembly programs.

Homecoming is Fun For All

Homecoming Day, October 15, 1960, was an enjoyable day for the students and alumni. Among the activities were a parade, a football game, selection of the queen, and a dance, which climaxed a very exciting day.

The parade was very colorful with its many floats. The juniors won the prize for the best float.

Annmarie Davidson, a senior, was crowned queen and reigned over the festivities.

The dance was an unqualified success. Members of the alumni gathered in small groups to relive some treasured moments of their days at S.H.S.

The prize winning float was made by the junior class.

Annmarie Davidson is crowned Homecoming Day Queen by "Doc" Gardon, guest of honor of this year's event.

Council Plans Assemblies and Drives

Composed of one representative from each homeroom and the class officers, the Student Council, although it is not actually a governing body, gives students an opportunity to voice their opinions. Advised by Mr. Kiamie, the council also directs such events as the Boosters Club Drive and the Carnival Ball.

F. T. A. STUDIES TEACHING PROFESSION

The Future Teachers of America Club is one of the most active groups in this school. Organized to help students explore the field of education, the club attends programs at various colleges and observes teaching practices in local schools. As an aid to the school, this group has been active in P.T.A. functions and in the correction of the news wise quizzes on current events.

DRAMATICS CLUB HOSTS DRAMA FESTIVAL

Under the direction of Mr. Richard Stott, adviser, energetic members of the Dramatics Club organized theater parties and participated in various productions throughout the year. Either behind the scenes or on stage, the majority of the members have contributed their talents. This year they helped to make the annual drama festival, for which Stoneham was host, a success.

LIBRARY CLUB

Under Mrs. Winter's leadership, the Library Club has been issuing editions of "The Blurb Sheet" which contains book reviews. Members of the club help to keep the shelves neat and the books correctly arranged. This group has stimulated interest in reading and library work.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

Throughout the year, the traffic squad, under the direction of Mr. Fred Kiamie, has helped maintain an orderly procedure in the corridors while the students were passing between classes. This group holds open doors and in general helps make the school run more smoothly.

Left to right: Mr. Fred Kiamie, adviser, R. Mucci, D. Maxwell, D. Egan, J. Breen, G. Gardt, D. Moore, L. O'Neill, F. Pignane, captain.

Edwin Barney

STUDENT GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE

Each year the students elect a qualified pupil to represent the school at the State House on Student Government Day. After the candidates had presented speeches on what they would do if they were elected, the student body elected Edwin Barney. Capable students from each high school serve as members of the three branches, legislative, judicial, and executive, of the state government.

STUDENT EXCHANGE DAY

Student Exchange Day is sponsored by the State Department of Education to promote civic training and interest in governmental affairs. Two groups, one from Stoneham and one from Newburyport, this year exchanged visits in order to learn the different procedures employed in the operation of town and city governments.

COMBINING BUSINESS WITH PLEASURE

The members of the Business Girls Club worked together to make the club one of the largest and most successful in the school.

Mrs. Margaret Garvin
Adviser

The Business Girls Club, through its many social and educational activities, has helped its members to gain a better knowledge of business customs. One of the important club projects this year was the collection of Christmas toys and money for the benefit of less fortunate children in our area.

Officers: Seated, left to right: L. Soipe, M. Secondini, R. Chapmon. Standing: E. Jackson, S. Lord, R. Pesatura.

The pep squad enthusiastically supports all our athletic teams.

CHEERLEADERS DIRECT SPIRITED PEP SQUAD

Our Pep Club officers were: Diane Marino, president; Susan Whitehouse, vice-president; Melanie Rose, secretary; and Paula Danca, treasurer. The officers assisted the various committees in planning club activities.

The club conducted a successful car wash. The members washed everything in sight, including a four year old boy's car. Several cake sales helped swell the club's treasury.

The girls paraded in force before the opening football game.

GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE REPRESENTATIVES

Each year one girl is sent to Bridgewater State Teachers College, and four boys are sent to the University of Massachusetts to participate in Girls' and Boys' State. Organized by the American Legion and set up like two miniature states, Girls' and Boys' State teach young people the principles and fundamentals of our state government.

N. H. S. SUCCESSFUL IN SCHOLARSHIP DRIVE

Mr. Chester Jordan
Adviser

One of the most difficult clubs to join in Stoneham High School is the National Honor Society. A group founded for the encouragement of scholastic excellence, the society's activities fall naturally into categories which would further its aims. During the football season this group of students sells programs at games so that, at graduation time, a National Honor Society Scholarship may be awarded to some worthy member of the senior class.

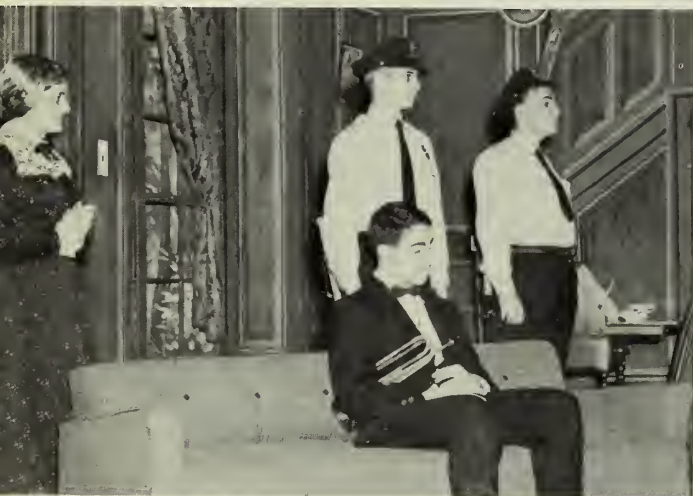

Seniors Score Hit With "Arsenic"

The cast takes a bow.

"Everything ready?" Attention is directed to the work, actors on stage, props in position. Suddenly it's the magic moment. The curtain opens, the lines start . . . and another successful play is on the road. The play in question is "Arsenic and Old Lace"; the cast is a talented group of seniors. What a job preparing the play, a hilarious story of the slightly wacky Brewsters of Brooklyn, a family with a penchant for the macabre! Audience reaction—laughter. The tension relaxes. It's another opening and another great show for SHS seniors!

"Mr. President, we have nothing to report."

". . . . and a pinch of arsenic."

And Old Lace."

Adviser

Carnival Again

Scott Cheyne, Sandra Cornwell, Patricia Duff, and Donald Maxwell do a "soft shae" number as "Stars Fell on Alabama."

Caroline Arsenault gives us her interpretation of "Exodus."

Master of ceremonies, Francis Pignane, introduces the next act.

Some of the boys entertain us with "Man Piaba," a folk song from the islands.

One of the most remembered events of the school year was our annual Carnival Ball. The king and queen and their royal court reigned over a magical kingdom called "Crystal Lodge." The coronation was followed by an unusual and colorful variety show in which many students and faculty members participated.

SENIOR PROM MEMORABLE AFFAIR

Lovely Bear Hill Country Club was the setting for our long to be remembered Senior Prom. Dancing to the strains of the soft music, we found the gay climax to our social season too soon over. This enchanted evening was enjoyed by everyone who attended.

Dancers pause for punch in the middle of the evening.

A lively bunny hop peeps up the formal atmosphere.

The night passes quickly with conversation and dancing.

Chatting happily with class officers, Francis Pignone and Frances DeAngelis, are Ella Jackson and Ralph Stetson.

Class officers, Edwin Barney and Eileen Kelly, Frances DeAngelis and William Flahive, and Annmarie Davidsan and Francis Pignone, seem to be enjoying the dance.

Receiving a prize from disc jockeys, Eileen Kelly, Gwen Frazier and Edwin Barney, are Michael Niles and Janet Mandile.

STUDENT DISK JOCKEYS PROVIDE THE MUSIC

The dances at S. H. S., sponsored by the three classes, Boosters Club, cheerleaders, and majorettes, are well attended, gaily decorated, and thoroughly enjoyed.

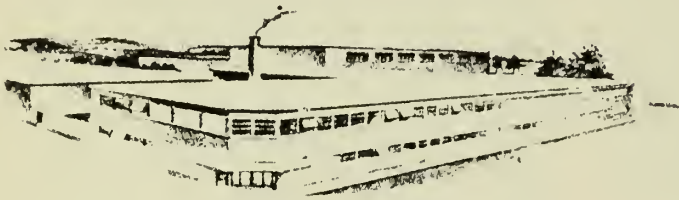

One of the most remembered events is the annual "Twirp Twirl". On this night the girls are required to pay for the evening's entertainment.

Everyone enjoyed our first dance, the "Kickoff".

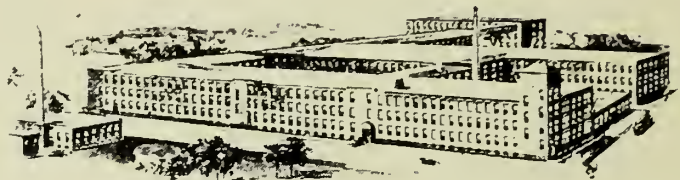

Congratulations to YOU!
